

Participants of CME Batch-6 photographed with Prof. Akhter Sherin who was the facilitator on June 8th, 2024. Picture also shows Prof. Nadia Naseem Pro VC UHS who is also Focal Person for CME and Mr. Shaukat Ali Jawaid Chief Editor Pakistan Journal of Medical Sciences who is advisor for CME Courses at UHS.

Participants of CME Batch-6 photographed with Dr. Masood Jawaid (Sitting on extrem right) who was the facilitator on June 7th, 2024.

Glimpses of Certificate in Medical Editing Batch-6 organized by UHS in collaboration with PAME

University of Health Sciences organized the second contact session for Certificate in Medical Editing Batch-6 at UHS campus from June 5th to June 8th 2024. This batch has fifteen candidates as one of the candidates was absent as he has gone for Hajj. On the first day Dr. Fatema Jawad Chief Editor, Journal of Pakistan Medical Association was the facilitator who discussed in detail Publication Ethics and scientific misconduct. On second day Mr. Shaukat Ali Jawaid Chief Editor

Pakistan Journal of Medical Sciences talked about Role of Editors in improving patient care, How to communicate with public using media besides Emotional blackmail by authors. On June 7th Dr. Masood Jawaid Associate Editor Pak J Med Sci conducted the Hands on training session on how to use Open Journal System while on the last day June 8th Prof. Akhter Sherin Chief Editor Khyber University Medical Journal talked about Indexation of Journals and the Scientometrics. He also gave examples of serious errors in formatting, page make up and editing of journals by Editors. This was an interactive session in which the participants were encouraged to ask questions to clarify any point they wished needed further elaboration. This course it may be recalled is a joint project of UHS with Pakistan Association of Medical Editors (PAME). Prof. Nadia Naseem Pro VC UHS is the focal person for CME at UHS.

Participants of CME Batch-6 photographed with Dr. Fatema Jawad (Sitting Third from Left) Chief Editor JPMA who was the facilitator on June 5th, 2024.

Certificate in Medical Editing participants of Batch-6 getting training on how to use Open Journal System.